FROM THE CHAIR OF THE HEATHCOTE WINE SHOW

We are delighted to present the results of the 2022 Heathcote Wine Show. It was great to have the Show back in the traditional July/August time slot. Entries, while slightly down on 2021, were strong and as Chair of judges Gabriel Poy notes the quality was excellent across the board.

Almost 70% of wines entered were awarded a medal including 22 gold; a testimony to the overall strength of the Heathcote region. The white wine class was particularly strong with 22 of the 26 entries receiving a medal, including 3 gold

The trophies across the classes went to a diverse range of wineries and it was great to see Farmer and Scientist taking out their first trophy for their Tempranillo in Class 7: Italian/Spanish varieties.

Tellurian 2021 Grenache won Class 8 Best Rhone Varietal and then went on to win Best Other Wine. It was also chosen by the judges in a taste-off against the Best Shiraz . Hanging Rock 2019 Cambrian Rise, for the Wine of Show award and subsequently was then awarded Best Single Vineyard and Best Wine Grown and Made in Heathcote.

This year was the inaugural year of the Heathcote Wine of Provenance award. This award takes over from the Heathcote Grand Terroir (HGT) and is open to all Heathcote red wines. The award recognises the wine label that shows greatest quality and consistency over a 10-vintage span. Sanguine Estate extended their strong HGT record by taking out the inaugural HWP award with their 2021, 2018 and 2012 Progeny Shiraz.

I take this opportunity to thank Gabrielle Poy for her excellent contribution over three years as Chair of Judges and I welcome Justin Purser to the role for the 2023 Show.

Congratulations to all medal winners and of course special congratulations to trophy winners and to Sanguine Estate for their success in winning the HWP.

Special thanks also to all of our sponsors and particularly Interpack, the Show wouldn't happen without their continued support.

We look forward to next year's show continuing to showcase the quality and diversity of the wines of the Heathcote Region

FROM THE CHAIR OF JUDGES

As my third and final year chairing, it was great being able to roll out the 2022 show without having to change dates or judging teams. The fact that we delivered shows in 2020 and 2021 speaks to the strength of the local team and organisers.

While shiraz is still the heart of the region, its identity is still forming. Tapping into regional definitions could help customers understand Heathcote better and more willing to buy across the region. For us as a judging team here's what we loved in this year's top expressions of shiraz:

A range of fruit profiles exists from darker fleshed berries through to raspberries. There's a generosity and richness to the core, tempered by an earthy, iodine, mulchy savouriness. The tannins are stony and sanguine-like adding dimension to the rich hearts. Oak supports rather than blankets. There's a strong connection to vintage and while the region is expansive, it's interesting to start forming ideas of sub-regionality. We started drilling down on this in the Heathcote Wine of Provenance class.

Excitement also lay in the swell of alternative red and white varieties. For the reds tempranillo, nero d'avola, piedirosso and nebbiolo were highlights. In the whites pecorino, fiano and vermentino were standouts. These classes were up on previous years and their high medal hit rate reflected Heathcote's ability and openness to newer varieties suited to the regional conditions.

While we've known for a while grenache can grow well here, the top wines were brilliant and its diversity was on show whether it be made into a still red or a rose.

For the Chairs Trophy I've awarded it to the 2019 Chalmers Lambrusco. A sparkling red made from one of the superior clones of Lambrusco – Maestri – it's rich and savoury with a sweep of fine savoury tannins on the finish. It's a beautiful aperitif style that will match well with local smallgoods such as salumi. This wine represents the new era of Heathcote that is being embraced in these warmer and drier times.

Thanks for having me guide the show for the last three years. It's opened my eyes to the strength of Heathcote as a region and I think the next decade will shine a deserved spotlight on Heathcote from consumers and the Australian retailers and sommeliers.
